Prof. Yuri. Turovskiy:

Institute of Mathematics and Mechanics,

National Academy of Sciences of Azerbaijan.

Baku, Azerbaijan

Dear Prof. Turovskiy:

It is my honor to invite you to Beijing Institute of Technology to have an academic visit and communication, during the period from 10 July 2014 to 14 August 2014. I expect you can give us some talks and introduce some new results and methods on functional analysis. This trip for you to China will be meaningful for school of mathematics.

Supported by "Key Project of Foreign Culture and Education Expert" and "National Natural Science Foundation of China" No. 10801008, we will offer you the return ticket to Beijing, accommodation and traffic fee in Beijing.

I hope you can accept my invitation.

Look forward to seeing you in Beijing.

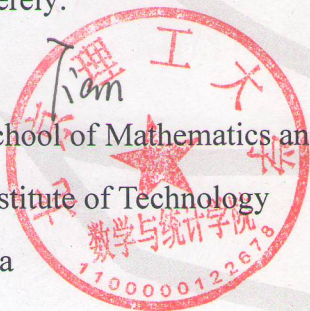

Your Sincerely:

Yubin Tian

Dean of school of Mathematics and Statistics
